

1
2
3
4
5
6
7
8 UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
9 WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
10 AT SEATTLE

11 ADIL LAHRICHI,

12 Plaintiff,

13 v.

14
15 LUMERA CORP., MICROVISION, and
THOMAS D. MINO,

16 Defendants.
17
18

CASE NO. C04-2124-JCC

ORDER

19 This matter comes before the Court on Plaintiff's Motion for Partial Reconsideration of Court's 20 03/23/09 Sealed Order (Dkt. No. 260). The local rules require that a motion for reconsideration "shall be 21 filed within ten judicial days after the order to which it relates is filed." Local Rules W.D. Wash. CR
22 7(h)(2). Accordingly, the deadline to file a motion for reconsideration of this Court's March 23, 2009,
23 Order was April 6, 2009. See id. Plaintiff filed the instant motion for partial reconsideration on April 7,
24 2009. (See Dkt. No. 260.)
25

1 The Court is not inclined to consider Plaintiffs untimely and “disfavored” motion, see Local Rules
2 W.D. Wash. CR 7(h), which asks the Court to reconsider numerous aspects of its previous detailed
3 review of Plaintiff’s excruciatingly voluminous sealing requests on limited remand.¹ Plaintiff’s untimely
4 motion for reconsideration (Dkt. No. 260) is therefore DENIED.

5 SO ORDERED this 9th day of April, 2009.

6
7
8
9 John C. Coughenour
UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE

10
11
12
13
14
15
16
17
18
19
20
21
22
23
24
25

¹ Prior to its consideration of Plaintiff’s appeal, the Ninth Circuit remanded the case back to this
Court for the limited purpose of considering Plaintiff’s motion to seal. (See Dkt. No. 214.)